

SENATE BILL NO. 311.

Executive Office,
State of Texas.

Austin, April 1, 1909.

To the Secretary of State:

I herewith transmit for file in the office of the Secretary of State Senate bill No. 311, passed by the Thirty-first Legislature at its Regular Session, being an act to amend Chapter 75 of the General Laws of the State of Texas passed by the Twenty-seventh Legislature, creating a more efficient road system for Grayson county, and Chapter 65 of the Special Laws of this State, amendatory thereof, passed by the Thirtieth Legislature in its Regular Session, providing for the creation of road districts in any political subdivision or any defined district hereafter to be described in said county, etc., without my approval. Section 38 of Article 3 of the Constitution of this State provides that the presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house of which he is presiding officer, sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature, after their title had been publicly read before signing, and the fact of signing shall be entered on the Journals; and this bill not having been signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and for that reason is not approved.

T. M. CAMPBELL,
Governor of Texas.
